soveral

Top London facialist and aromatherapist Alexandra Soveral studied the skin and organic ingredients extensively before launching her eponymous brand. “I am a firm believer in the power of essential oils”, she says of her range and is as much in demand for her face-sculpting, glow-inducing treatments as she is for her beautifully simple, self-titled organic skincare collection. Alexandra oversees all training for Soveral treatments performed in agua at Sea Containers London, including our exclusive custom and Guru personalized aromatherapy and her signature facial.

Barcelona-born luxury brand Natura Bissé uses ground-breaking technology with high-performance, pharmaceutical-grade ingredients for targeted anti-aging results. A powerful concentration of amino acids stimulates skin cells, fights free radicals and erases imperfections, leaving you with radiant, re-textured and visibly youthful skin.
